

Dear Sir/ Madam,

You are cordially invited to a unique seminar on Publication Ethics.

The seminar is co-sponsored by the Japanese Cancer Association, the journal Cancer Science, and Wiley-Blackwell. The seminar takes place during the annual meeting of the Japanese Cancer Association, but welcomes participants who are not registering/ participating in the annual meeting. The seminar is free of charge.

We hope that you will join us for what promises to be a high quality event with some of the best speakers on the topic. There are increasing demands for authors, editorial teams, institutional ethics committees, and industry to fully understand the developing issues and policies involved in publication ethics. This is a unique opportunity for you to stay up to date, learn more, and possibly engage in discussion with speakers and participants.

The event allows a maximum of 300 participants. If you wish to reserve a seat, please let us know if you will attend before 1 September by sending an email to Kimie Okubo at Wiley-Blackwell in Tokyo: kokubo@wiley.com

Date: Wednesday 22 September 2010. Time: 3:00pm - 6:00pm

Location: Osaka, Osaka International Congress Center, 12th Floor, Special Hall.

Venue: During the annual meeting of the Japanese Cancer Association.

Cost: Free

Publication Ethics program

3:00pm - 3:05pm Tetsuo Noda, President, Japanese Cancer Association: Welcome.

3:05pm - 3:25pm Yutaka Kawakami, Japanese Cancer Association Ethics Committee: Cancer Science conflict of interest policy.

3:30pm - 4:00pm Fiona Godlee, BMJ (British Medical Journal) Editor: Defending the integrity of the medical literature: an editor's perspective.

4:05pm - 4:35pm Catherine DeAngelis, JAMA (the Journal of the American Medical Association) Editor: Conflict of interest in medical research: facts and friction.

4:40pm - 5:15pm Mike Rossner, Executive Director, Rockefeller University Press, former Managing Editor, Journal of Cell Biology: What's in a picture? The temptation of image manipulation.

5:20pm - 6:00pm Closing words, drinks, and buffet reception.